the greek city state by focusing on the significance of warfare vis à vis the sociopolitical development of upland polities blome shows that although the more powerful states of the classical greek world were dismissive or ignorant of the military capabilities of upland greeks the reverse was not the case the phocians aetolians acarnanians and arcadians in circa 490 362 bce were well aware of the arrogant attitudes of their aggressive neighbors and as highly efficient political entities they exploited these attitudes to great effect
