this edited work uses the life and biblical teachings of Jesus to examine modern leadership theory with the Gospel of John as its focal point. It depicts leadership traits such as compassion, empathy, humility, and transparency as essential to the ministry of Jesus. The authors explore concepts related to communication, conflict resolution, mentorship, authentic leadership, servant leadership, transformational leadership, and succession planning to show the applicability of principles espoused in biblical teachings to modern organizations. This book will make a valuable addition to the leadership literature by using the life of Jesus as a case study.

this book examines the principles and procedures implemented by Moses for developing leaders using Exodus 18 as the basis. The author explores how leadership skills are best developed in small group settings. The author then delves into contemporary leadership principles such as authentic leadership and how organizations can develop leaders at every level of the organization. Issues such as accountability, ethics, and trust will be discussed at length with an examination of the expected outcomes of training leaders at all levels. This book will be a valuable addition to the leadership literature in showing how biblical leadership principles can be used in contemporary organizations.

this Willow Creek Resources six-session evangelism course for churches and groups of all sizes is designed to equip believers for effective evangelism by showing them how they can share the Gospel in a natural and powerful way while being the person God made them to be.

this book and course is designed to enable Christians to lead confidently based on their identity in Christ. Leadership is tough. Many leaders come to leadership from competence in a different field without training and fear that they cannot really lead and will be found out one day. Many leaders are insecure, constantly assessing how they are coming across and where challenges may arise. Being grounded in Christ is the foundation for all true Christian leadership. This identity-based leadership makes us less driven, reduces the risk of burnout, and enables us to survive personal attacks, use conflict positively, and overcome other barriers to effective leadership. Once we operate from this secure base, centered and grounded in Christ, we become less vulnerable to threats to our status. We cease to have anything to hide because we can afford to be vulnerable, and we are less likely to be blown off course by strong-willed people wanting to push their own agenda.

when the spiritual gift of leadership comes alive in churches everywhere, the church will become the hope of the world and a most influential force for good.

do you have a desire or calling to lead and no idea where to begin or where you are headed? do you feel you must have a title or position to be a leader? have you been a pastor for years but not effective in developing your leadership team? if any of this is true, this book is for you. This book was not written exclusively for church leadership; it will examine leadership principles that are pertinent in every area of life. Step by step, it will guide you through the process of personal leadership development. It is guaranteed to give everyone who is serious about leadership useful tools and incentives to transform lives. In part I, it will introduce and define a new term with an old flavor leadership christianity within its pages you will see how creating change and making good sound decisions are essential in your life as a leader part ii includes a detailed examination and application of the five most important characteristics of a leader who c a r e s character attitude relationships effective communications self discipline the final chapters of part iii are geared toward action showing you the leader how these principles can be utilized in your everyday life at home in your church and in your community rev wayne p bowman dmin
